

DSQ Pattern Collection Errata

Ok, so we're not perfect. Thanks to a couple of sharp sewers, we've discovered a couple of mistakes in our new pattern collection. We've reprinted the problem sections below, with the corrections printed in bold type. Sorry!

Stacking the Odds - Baby Quilt Border Correction

Cutting Instructions for the Background and Border (Page 5)

1. There are two different background stripes. To cut Background Stripe A, cut (0) (2) (4) (6) selvage-to-selvage strips, (0) (7-1/2") (7-1/2") (7-1/2") wide. To cut Background Stripe B, cut 2 selvage-to-selvage strips 6-3/8" wide.
2. To cut the Top Border, cut (2) (2) (2) (3) selvage-to-selvage strips, (7-1/4") (7-3/4") (11") (11") wide.
3. To cut the Bottom Border, cut (2) (2) (2) (3) selvage-to-selvage strips, (7-1/4") (10-5/8") (12-3/8") (12-3/8") wide.
4. To cut the Side Border, cut (3) (4) (4) (4) selvage-to-selvage strips, (7-1/4") (11-5/8") (12") (12") wide.
5. Trim all selvage edges.

Sewing Instructions for the Border (Page 11)

For each quilt, you'll need 1 Top, 1 Bottom, and 2 Side Borders.

1. With right sides together and placed end to end, stitch together the (2) (2) (2) (3) Top Border Pieces to make one long strip. Repeat for Bottom Border pieces. Cut each strip into (44-1/4") (68") (86") (103") long pieces.
2. Stitch together the (3) (4) (4) (4) Side Border Pieces, end to end, to make one long strip. Cut this strip into 2 (46.25") (70-5/8") (70-5/8") (70-5/8") long Side Borders.
2. With right sides together, sew Borders to the sides first. Then sew the Top and Bottom Borders to make the quilt top. Press seams toward the Border.

Stacking the Odds - Recommended Usage of Hope Valley Fabric Correction (Page 4)

Depending on how you lay out the Templates on your fat quarters, you might come up a bit short of a few of the fabrics when making the quilt in queen or king size. Please feel free to substitute from the other Hope Valley fabrics used in this quilt pattern.

Thanks for your support, and happy quilting!
