

General Info

Getting Here

Please remember to bring a print-out of the map on page four with you on the day of your workshop! If you take a cab from the train station or are driving with a GPS you will need the map to get to our door, as the studio is in a large complex of buildings.

Timing

Please arrive fifteen minutes early so you have plenty of time to settle in and take care of any last minute necessities before the workshop begins.

Clothing

With high loft ceilings and tall windows, temperatures in the studio can vary tremendously. We suggest that you dress comfortably in layers, as the studio can be warm in the summer and cooler in the winter.

Food and drink

If you are taking one of our 5 hour workshops, a delicious vegetarian lunch will be provided for you. If you have special dietary needs, we suggest that you bring your own lunch (some suggested sources are provided in our dining resource guide). A refrigerator and microwave are available at the studio for participants to use.

For shorter workshops please feel free to bring your own snacks/refreshments.

Available for Purchase

Denyse's fabrics, books, pillows, stationary and quilts are available for purchase after all workshops. We offer a 10% discount for workshop participants.

FAQ's and Policies

Join our mailing list at www.dsquilts.com to receive news about special events and new workshops. Rest assured, DSQ will never share your information with anyone.

Upon registration we will e-mail you a confirmation. Please note that this may take us a day or two. In the unlikely event that you do not receive a timely confirmation please do not hesitate to call us at #203-335-2719.

Cancellations requested at least eight weeks prior to the workshop date for which you have registered incur a $50 cancellation fee. If you wish to reschedule for an alternate workshop date, you will be charged a $50 transfer fee. Cancellations requested less than eight weeks before the scheduled workshop will be refunded 50% of the workshop fee.

Got a special event you'd like to celebrate in a creative way? E-mail us or call 800-621-9017 and we will make it happen!

You can help us give back when you participate in Denyse's Improvisational Patchwork workshop. Donate one or more blocks that you create during class – we'll sew the collected blocks together to make a quilt we'll donate for charity fundraisers.

Tools and Materials

We Provide

All necessary equipment, including sewing machines, is included in your tuition fee. All workshop participants will be provided with a sewing machine, an 18" x 24" gridded cutting mat, 45 mm rotary cutter and a gridded clear plastic ruler (3" x 18" or 6" x 24").

If you prefer to bring your own sewing machine or other tools, please feel free to do so – just let us know in advance and plan to arrive one half hour early to set up your machine.

Transportation

Denyse Schmidt Quilts, in Bridgeport, Connecticut, is on the coast of Long Island Sound. We are approximately sixty miles northeast of New York City (one hour and thirty minutes estimated driving time) and are reachable by air, train and automobile. Our studio is in a historic textile mill complex, formerly home to the American Fabrics Company, which manufactured lace fabric, trim and embroideries from 1908 to 1990.

Our address is 1069 Connecticut Avenue, Building Four, Fourth Floor, Bridgeport, CT 06607. Please call the studio (203-335-2719) when you arrive for assistance with the elevator, or take the stairs to the top floor.

By Air

The two closest major airports to the studio are LaGuardia Airport in New York (one hour and 10 minutes driving time) and Bradley International Airport, north of Hartford, CT (one hour and 15 minutes driving time). Other New York area airports, JFK and Newark, are a bit farther (approximately one hour and thirty minutes driving time). From any of these airport locations, the best way to reach us is to rent a car, and follow our driving directions, also found in this document.

Smaller regional airports are Tweed –New Haven Airport (thirty minutes by car) and Westchester County Airport in White Plains, New York (fifty minutes by car).

Limousine transportation from the Bradley, JFK, LaGuardia and Newark airports is provided by Connecticut Limousine, 1-800-472-LIMO (5466) or 203-878-2222, www.ctlimo.com, which stops at the Bridgeport terminal. Taxi connections can be made from the terminal to our studio.

By Train

Metro North, www.mta.info, the commuter rail line, makes hourly trips via the New Haven Line between Grand Central Station in New York (42nd Street and Lexington Avenue) and the Bridgeport station (the trip takes approximately one hour and thirty minutes). We are approximately two and a half miles from the station. From the station, the best way to the studio is by taxi. Yellow Cab (below) is located in the station building.

By Ferry

The Bridgeport and Port Jefferson Steamboat Ferry Company www.bpjferry.com, 888-443-3779) runs a scenic ferry service (the trip takes approximately one hour and fifteen minutes) between Bridgeport (330 Water Street Dock, Bridgeport, CT 06604) and Port Jefferson (102 West Broadway, Port Jefferson, NY 11777) from May through October. Primarily for pedestrians and bicycles, a limited number of cars are also ferried by prior reservation. The Bridgeport ferry building is located right across the street from the Bridgeport train station. The best way to get to the studio is by taxi. Yellow Cab (below) is located in the train station building.

Local Taxicab Companies

Rodeway Inn 10 Washington Parkway, Stratford. 203-377-6288, www.rodewayinn.com. Located directly on the beach in the Lordship section of Stratford, The Rodeway Inn also has a diner-style restaurant, Marnicks, on the premises that features breakfast all day.

Ramada Inn 225 Lordship Boulevard, Stratford. 203-375-8866, www.ramada.com This location of the national chain offers an indoor pool and an on-site restaurant. Located conveniently near exit 30 off of I-95.

Hi-Ho Motel 4180 Black Rock Turnpike, Fairfield. 203-259-5264. A 1940's motel located just off exit 44 of the Merritt Parkway. The bonus of staying at the Hi-Ho is the Barcelona Restaurant (203-255-0800, www.barcelonawinebar.com), located on the premises. Barcelona has a great tapas menu, great wines, and a retro 1970's Jonathan-Adler style decor. Full, swinging bar and outdoor patio dining.

Dining

Bridgeport

Bloodroot 85 Ferris Street, in the Black Rock section of Bridgeport. 203-576-9168, www.bloodroot.com. To quote Zagat, “this venerable feminist enclave is refreshing, as are the superb ethnic vegetarian and vegan dishes”. For over 30 years Bloodroot has served locally grown, organic produce. Located on an out-of-the way cul-de-sac, with eclectic outdoor seating in warm weather, overlooking Long Island Sound.

Omanel 1909 Main Street, Bridgeport. 203-335-1676. A family-run Portuguese restaurant serves up a trip to Lisbon in an unassuming setting in downtown Bridgeport. “Must have” dishes, according to Zagat, are the pork and clams or the paella. Be prepared to share, as the portions are generous.

State Street Bistro 211 State Street, Bridgeport. 203-540-5705, www.statestreetbistro.com. An update on classic French bistro fare. Located in a historic landmark building featuring a beautiful mahogany and copper bar and a nice relaxed vibe.

Two Boots 277 Fairfield Ave. Bridgeport. 203-331-1377, www.twoboots.com. Famous for their cornmeal crusted pizza, Two Boots is an eclectic, full service restaurant serving up unique, family style Cajun-Italian cooking and featuring a wide variety of live music (see Area Attractions).

Fairfield

Centro 1435 Fairfield Boston Post Road (route 1), Fairfield. 203-255-1210. www.centroristorante.com. Reasonably priced Italian fare, from salads, to pastas and pizzas. Friendly atmosphere, with crayons and paper tablecloths for jotting down that latest design inspiration. In warm weather, tables with umbrellas are set on the terrace overlooking the town gazebo. Lunch and dinner.

Las Vetas 1462 Post Rd. Fairfield. 203-259-1958. A cozy, artsy alternative to the coffee chains, Las Vetas offers live music and poetry readings (as well as java). Just steps away is the Community Theatre and the Fairfield Theatre Company (see Local Cultural Attractions). Downtown Bridgeport location opening in 2009.

Frank Pepe's Pizzeria 238 Commerce Drive, Fairfield. 203-333-7373, www.pepespizzeria.com/fairfield This latest outpost of the legendary New Haven pizzeria has been cited by Jane and Michael Stern in Gourmet Magazine as “arguably the best pizza in the country”. Noted for their crispy, thin crust, the white clam pizza is the local specialty, topped with briny fresh littleneck clams and LOTS of garlic. Lines can be very long on weekends, but it's worth the wait.

Health in a Hurry 1891 Post Road (route 1), Fairfield. 203-254-5777. A quick, organic, vegetarian take-out place with inspired offerings featuring fresh, seasonal vegetables.

Fin 222 Post Road, Fairfield. 203-259-5950. A tiny, neighborhood sushi bar with the freshest sushi around (flown in daily). Dine outdoors or indoors at this local favorite.

Ole Mole 2074 Black Rock Turnpike, Fairfield. 203-333-0400. Going a bit beyond the standard Mexican fare of tacos, burritos and enchiladas, Ole Mole offers both vegetarian and meat-based entrees, from tamales to mole poblano. Decorated with Mexican folk art and colorful tiles, this location is small but charming.

Quattro Pazzi 1599 Boston Post Road, (route 1), Fairfield. 203-259-7417, www.quattropazzi.com Noted for their large servings of fantastic homemade pasta presented with a lot of eye appeal, this small Italian restaurant is always quite busy. Can't get a table? Try their sister restaurant, Cafe Quattro, next door. The fare is a bit lighter and the atmosphere more casual but the result just as pleasing.

Saraband 12 Unquowa Place (just off route 1), Fairfield. 203-259-8084. New American cuisine, with an eclectic menu, a bit on the higher-priced side. The restaurant is cozy, with a charming outdoor terrace. Lunch and dinner.

Super Duper Weenie 306 Black Rock Turnpike, Fairfield. 203-334-0033, www.superduperweenie.com Cited by Jane and Michael Stern in Gourmet Magazine as "one of America's ten best hot dog joints", this unique restaurant is worth the short skip off of exit 24 of I-95. Serving up homemade condiments along with a variety of juicy dogs, they also serve fresh cut fries made on the premises. Another hard to find specialty, Del's frozen lemonade, finishes off the menu. Limited indoor seating, primarily take-out.

Westport

Balducci's 1385 Post Road East (route 1) Westport. 203-254-5200. Formerly the beloved local market Hayday, this location has now become a suburban outpost of the famed New York grocer. Their coffee bar offers a variety of brews and pastries; and their take-out offerings include interesting soups, salads, and wraps.

Tengda Asian Bistro 1330 Post Road East, Westport. 203-255-6115, www.tengdaasianbistro.com. A lively location with a Pan-Asian menu, excellent sushi, and an edgy industrial décor make this a very popular spot. Lunch and dinner.

The Dressing Room 25 Powers Court (on the grounds of the Westport Country Playhouse), Westport. 203-226-1114, www.dressingroomhomegrown.com. This joint venture launched by the late, great Paul Newman and Michael Nischan, both proponents of organic and sustainable food sources, is a popular addition to the local dining scene. The menu features updated American Heritage Cuisine, using the finest locally grown organic and artisanal food products.

Milford

Jeffrey's 501 New Haven Avenue, Milford. 203-878-1910. Overlooking the salt marshes toward Long Island Sound, this Milford favorite offers contemporary continental cuisine. It features a charming outdoor garden patio in season.
